

After protesting to ATT about charges of over $4/minute from the US to Guatemala, I was told by ATT that they charge me for calling a cell phone. I asked them when they had notified me in writing that I had to pay for calling a cell phone and they were not able to tell me when they had notified me.